

JEWISH SINGLE MALT WHISKY SOCIETY

PRESENTS A VIP TOUR OF
SCOTLAND'S WHISKY
DISTILLERIES

HOSTED BY
JOSHUA HATTON &
JASON JOHNSTONE-YELLIN

If you've ever wanted to visit Scotland and tour the distilleries that produce some of the world's finest single malt Scotch, now is the time to do it.

We specialize in leading intimate, small group tours (6-8 people) around Scotland's most famous whisky regions. All you have to do is sit back, enjoy the scenery & the spirit, and let us take care of your whisky experience.

We're committed to delivering a whisky experience of the highest order.

We'll take care of:

- Your accommodation for 8 nights
- Breakfast each morning
- All the driving
- Shabbatot in Glasgow
- Ferry to/from Arran & Islay
- VIP tours of several whisky distilleries
- Kosher requirements
- Your whisky experience

All you have to take care of:

- Flights to/from Glasgow
- Lunch & evening meals
- Personal purchases
- Having a wonderful time

This 8-person, 7-day whisky tour of Scotland costs $2500 per person and is based on two people sharing accommodation.

ITINERARY: AUGUST 12-19, 2011

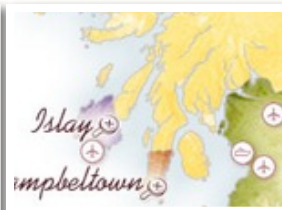

Our next VIP tour convenes in Glasgow on Friday, August 12th, 2011. Bookended by Shabbatot in Glasgow, the tour features three island visits in the first four days (Arran, Islay & Skye), two days in the Scottish Highlands (Tain & Dufftown), and visits to several world renowned whisky bars. The tour concludes the morning of Saturday, August 20th, 2011.

THE FIRST THREE DAYS

After enjoying a Shabbat service and trip to Bon Accord on the evening of the 12th we set off bright and early for the Isle of Arran on the 13th. After a VIP tour of the Arran distillery (including a warehouse tasting) we leave for Islay early on the 14th. Two days on Islay will allow us to tour and taste at Ardbeg, Bowmore, Lagavulin, and Laphroaig (plenty of surprises lie ahead on Islay).

Taking the ferry to Arran & Islay

Tour Arran distillery & Islay's jewels

THE MIDDLE TWO DAYS

We ferry back to the mainland on the morning of the 16th and head north to the Isle of Skye, home of the majestic Talisker distillery. After a VIP tour of the distillery and a night enjoying the island's hospitality we head east to Tain and the Glenmorangie distillery on the 17th. We'll spend the night in Tain before heading to Portsoy the following morning to visit recently reopened Glenglassaugh.

Over the bridge to Skye

Tour Talisker & Glenmorangie

THE FINAL TWO DAYS

After spending the morning in Portsoy we'll head down to Dufftown which will serve as our base while we explore the Balvenie distillery, the 250 bottle whisky bar at the Highlander Inn, and the 650 bottle whisky bar at the 5-star Craigellachie Hotel. On the afternoon of the 19th we'll head back down the road for Shabbat service and whisky tasting at Glasgow Reform Synagogue.

A whisky library at Craigellachie Hotel

Tour Glenglassaugh & The Balvenie

YOUR HOSTS:

JOSHUA HATTON

My passion and appreciation for whisky, as well as the art and craft of producing it, led to me creating the Jewish

Single Malt Whisky Society. I hope you'll come to Scotland and join this Jew in search of "guid Scotch drink."

JASON JOHNSTONE-YELLIN

Born and raised in Scotland, leading whisky tours allows me a terrific opportunity to return home in order to introduce new friends to the wonders of Scotland's national spirit.

If you're interested in joining this tour, please contact Joshua via telephone or email to register your interest. We are also happy to organize tours tailored to your precise specifications.

JEWISH
SINGLE MALT
WHISKY SOCIETY

t: (860) 680-8128

e: joshua@JSMWS.com

www: JSMWS.com

Whisky Map: Map of Scotland's Distilleries, scotlandwhisky.com